“ You were one of the first families we met when we moved to 4 Mile Run in '66. Your son was my best friend. Even though we haven't seen you much in the last few years, you were always in our thoughts. The family group we had in the court is shrinking. You will definitely be missed.

“ Death is just an absence of the body. You fulfilled your duties here on earth and will soar above us continuing to watch and guide over us as you always have. Until we meet again. Rest easy granddaddy.
