Adrienne grew up as a member of Saint John Baptist Church, in Alexandria, Virginia where she served on the usher board and sang in the Angelic Choir. She worked for several different companies, including Gum Springs Health Department, Second Genesis, and Centera. Adrienne believed in seeing the best in everyone, understanding that everyone stumbles, but deserves a second chance, and this belief defined her mission.

Adrienne treasured spending time with her children and grandchildren. She loved them without judgment, dedicated herself to making their days brighter, and encouraged them to always love one another. Adrienne spent her final days enveloped in the love of her family and friends. Even in her weakest moments, her primary focus remained on her loved ones, as she fought bravely to ensure that a smile remained on the faces of everyone she held dear.

Jesus said to her, "I am the resurrection and the life. Whoever believes in me, though he die, yet shall he live, and everyone who lives and believes in me shall never die. Do you believe this?" John 11:25-26

My Sincere Condolences to the Diggs Family; I have many fond memories of Addrienne, as a fellow Lady Titan of T.C. Williams. Also, she and I were part of a group of adults that chaperoned a group of youth to one of the last concerts held at the Capital Centre. What a rememberable moment. Rest i GOD'S Armes, until we meet again. 🙏
