

Albright Cloud Jr.

October 4, 1953 - March 7, 2014

On March 7, 2014 Albright Cloud, Jr. was called home. Albright, the loving son of the late Albright and Eva Mae Cloud, was born on October 4, 1953 in Alexandria, Virginia. Albright was the fifth of seven children. He received his formal education in the Alexandria Public Schools where he attended George Washington Middle School and T.C. Williams High School. At an early age he accepted Christ in his life and was an active member of the New Life Changing Christian Center in Clinton Maryland under the leadership of Pastor Jean Strozier.

Albright worked for Alexandria City Public Schools for twenty years. Like his father, Albright was an exceptional plumber and an entrepreneur. In 2001, he started his own successful business, the Albright Cloud Heating and Plumbing.

Albright was affectionately known as “Charlie” by his friends and family. He was a wonderful husband, father, brother, and uncle who loved his family very much. Anyone who knew Charlie would agree that he was a giving person. Charlie was there for everyone. If someone needed a shoulder to cry on or needed help with a bill, he was right there. He was a generous person who put others needs ahead of his own.

Charlie leaves to cherish his memory: his wife, Stephanie Cloud; his children, Baraco (Fatima) Cloud, Breoni Cloud, Tiffany (Yaco) and Marquette; four grandchildren, Jaire, Yakia, Da'Nicco and Tyson; five sisters, Bernice (Willie) Simmons, Geneva Peace, Eloise (George) Kelly, Linda (Rick) Stewart, and Adrian Cloud; one brother Tyrone Cloud (preceded in death) and a host of nieces and nephews, and many other relatives and friends.

“ Years ago, we were next door nabors to the Cloud's on N. West Street. Charlie couldn't help being a kind and generous person because he inherited that spirit from his wonderful parents (Mr. Albright and Miss Eva Mae). I'm praying that God will give all of you strength as you go through this difficult time. Remember, he's able to bear your burdens if you let him. He will never leave nor forsake you. God Bless and Love!!! Juanita Price Cheeks

“ Charlie, as we the Blake family called you, we will miss you. The one's that has crossed over before you your family and friends will be there to greet each and everyone of us when we meet again and rejoice in the house of the Lord, and oh what a celebration we'll have. To the family of Charlie, The Cloud family is the first family I met as a little girl growing up next door 303 North West Street. So to me your family is my family and I love each and every one of the Cloud family my heart goes out to you I know what you are going through. May the Lord keep his arms around you and help you get through this time of bereavement

“ To The Family of Albright (Charlie) Cloud:

May God hold you in the palm of His hand and comfort you with His everlasting love. Words are so inadequate at a time like this. The Cloud and Hollis family have been life long friends and have experienced great times together. Expressing sympathy is always difficult, but all we can say is how sorry we are.

Charlie was such a great person. Liked by everyone who knew him. The pain is real, the Holy Spirit will comfort.

Years ago we were neighbors and our mothers were best friends.

Mr. Albright and Ms. Eva Mae would be very proud of Charlie because he took care of his business and helped others. Friendship writes a story in the heart and takes many years to tell.

Charlie rest in peace.
