

Mrs. Almetter Seegars

October 20, 1917 - August 21, 2016

Almetter Seegars, age 98, rose to the highest honor and the call of the holy-spirit to join the host of loved ones in the City of Gold. She ascended from her earthly home in Alexandria, Virginia surrounded by her loved ones on Sunday, August, 21, 2016 at 4:40 A.M. Almetter was born on October 20, 1917, to the late Richard and Aggie Mickle of Lancaster, South Carolina.

Almetter was the eldest sister to seven brothers and four sisters. At an early age she learned to assist her mother in rearing her siblings. In her early teens she worked for the then Mayor of Lancaster, South Carolina. Almetter then met the late Joseph Athey Seegars, who swept her off her feet, and married him on April 7, 1942. They moved to Alexandria, Virginia in 1943 and from this union began raising twelve children, Carl W. Seegars of Oxon Hill, Maryland, Barbara S. Pinkett of Fairfax, Virginia, Willie J. Seegars of Alexandria, Virginia, Betty S. Seegars, Deceased, Helen M. Fuller of Suisun City, California, Joseph J. Seegars of Waldorf, Maryland, Melinda A. Seegars-Jimenez, Deceased, Deborah R. Worthy of Alexandria, Virginia, Ronald L. Seegars, Deceased, and Metter A. Penick, Joyce E. Seegars, and Judith M. Quinones, all of Alexandria, Virginia. There are thirty-five grand children, fifty-seven great-grandchildren and eleven great-great grandchildren.

Almetter was a strong and diligent worker for God in and out of the church. She held several jobs to include Deaconess, Missionary and Mother of the Church. In the early fifties she became a member of the Eastern Stars.

Being a gentle soul, Almetter was well loved by all who came into her path. She had great gardening skills, as you could tell by her love of flowers. As most of you know, she also loved hats. She once said, maybe this came from her getting married in the general store in the millinery department. As a tribute to their loving mother each of her daughters are wearing one of her hats during services.

Almetter also leaves to mourn her, two sisters, Nannie Kirkland of Lancaster, South Carolina, Mary Wright of Alexandria, Virginia, two brothers, Joseph and Gilbert Mickle of Detroit, Michigan, and two sisters-in-law, Sandra and Laeula Mickle of Detroit, Michigan. Also to mourn are a host nieces, nephews and other loved ones.

“ My sweet Grandma, I love you and will miss you dearly. Your beautiful smile will be truly missed. You will always be an inspiration to me with all the wisdom, knowledge and long legacy you have restored upon us. Our hearts are heavy but we know that GOD knows what's best and is still in control. Gone suddenly but never forgotten. Your memories and the special connections that you had with each of us will remain in our lives forever. You are with the Lord and at peace resting amongst the angels. I will always remember and cherish the good times we shared together, that will always be near and dear to my heart. Thank you for the opportunity of letting us get to know such a warm, genuine, loving, sweet dear person as yourself you will always be my QUEEN BEE.....Family continue to stay strong. LOVE YOU
