“ My dear friend, left to soon ♡ I am in tears and can't breath. I always say the once left behind suffer the most. I remember the day of my 1 st surgery you said Meta let yourself in God's hands you will feel no pain. I had complications but felt no pain in his hands. The pain I feel now is tremendous and hurts more I can't describe. You have been my 1st true friend, since the day I arrived in the United States 🇺🇸 you celebrated ups and downs with me and always been there for me no matter what and my family especially babygirl Alecia, you been the little brother I wished I had here and you filled this honory spot with tons of love. Too soon we lost you 💔 it hurts. Words can't describe the pain and big loss I feel. Words can't describe how incredible of a person you is for eternity... Love and miss you forever.

“ It's still so hard to accept your gone. You were the 2nd person I ever talked to with RRP. Had it not been for you, I'd would have never met Siarra and Sheila. Fly high brother! Will always love and cherish the time we talked!
Love, Dani

“ I loved working with Antonio. He was sweet, smart, and a great colleague. I could not have done my job without him. He taught me so much. He had a great sense of humor and was always so patient with me.

He was such a special person. I will miss him very much. Sending warmest regards to Jamie Smalls and Antonio's whole family. Rest in peace to an incredible person.

“ Antonio was such a kind and vibrant spirit through the phone as well as I’m sure in person. I never met him in person, but he was always so friendly and helpful when I needed help setting up my system. Praying for the family! Antonio will definitely be missed.

“ Marlene and I followed the ups and downs of Toni's battle with RRP over these many years, with fond memories of those good times. He was such an inspiration to all pulmonary papilloma patients. We will all miss him so very much and our thoughts are with Jamie and family. It was such a privilege to know him. In Tonio's memory we will be making a donation to the RRPF Pulmonary Papilloma Research Initiative. With our condolences and love, Bill and Marlene

“Tonio will always be such a huge part of the RRP community. He was a friend to all, and he always had a way to turn something so serious into something funny. I will miss our chats over good food, as well as our silly chats over a private island to escape to...I'll never forget visiting the MLK museum in Atlanta with Tonio and watching his face as he just stood and absorbed the enormity of where he was. Blessed beyond measure to know him. Kim

I knew Antonio at work and he was so kind and patient with everyone, especially those of us who leaned on him heavily for his superb computer skills. Such a shock to lose this truly wonderful colleague. All of AFGE will miss him dearly.

As I sit with here with a heavy heart and my eyes overflowing with tears as they did the day I heard of Antonio's passing, he will without a doubt be missed around the office. On the other hand, he was more than just a colleague. We shared the common interest of photography and we showed off some of our pictures. Antonio was always easy going, never rattled at times when he should've been. He always kept his cool and was easy to talk to. For sure, he will be missed by many!

I just found out about this today (2/14/22) and am deeply saddened. I used to supervise Antonio at ACICS. He was more than a co-worker and we could talk about IT all day. He was truly a kind soul. Sometimes I would take him home after work and have a quick conversation with his Grandmother where I assured her Antonio was doing a great job. We keep in touch briefly after leaving the job in 2016 and I was just thinking about him over the holidays. I am in shock. I was blessed to work and know him. -
