

Arthur Cotton Sr.

March 2, 1919 - November 14, 2013

Arthur Cotton, Sr. was born to the late Gurney and Mary Elizabeth Cotton on March 2, 1919 in Rockingham County, Reidsville, North Carolina.

He was a bright student of the public school system then later became employed with the city Tobacco Factory. He faithfully served his country as an Enlisted World War II Veteran of the United States Navy.

Arthur Cotton, Sr. attended Cornerstone Church in Alexandria, Virginia under the Pastoral leadership of his son, Pastor Arthur Cotton, Jr. and First Lady Hattie Cotton.

He leaves to rejoice in his memory three children; two loving daughters, Missionary Louise Lovelace (deceased-Clevester Lovelace) and Pastor Lorene Poindexter (Bishop Carver Poindexter) and one son Pastor Arthur Cotton Jr. (Mother Hattie Cotton). He was the proud grandfather of twelve grandchildren, twenty-nine great grandchildren, six great great grandchildren and countless other family members and friends.

He is survived by two of five siblings, Ivadell Graves and Pastor James Floyd Cotton. Having preceded him in death, Earsley Galloway, Della Craig and Marguerite Galloway

Arthur Cotton, Sr. was born to the late Gurney and Mary Elizabeth Cotton on March 2, 1919 in Rockingham County, Reidsville, North Carolina.

He was a bright student of the public school system then later became employed with the city Tobacco Factory. He faithfully served his country as an Enlisted World War II Veteran of the United States Navy.

Arthur Cotton, Sr. attended Cornerstone Church in Alexandria, Virginia under the Pastoral leadership of his son, Pastor Arthur Cotton, Jr. and First Lady Hattie Cotton.

He leaves to rejoice in his memory three children; two loving daughters, Missionary Louise Lovelace (deceased-Clevester Lovelace) and Pastor Lorene Poindexter (Bishop Carver Poindexter) and one son Pastor Arthur Cotton Jr. (Mother Hattie Cotton). He was the proud grandfather of twelve grandchildren, twenty-nine great grandchildren, six great great grandchildren and countless other family members and friends.

He is survived by two of five siblings, Ivadell Graves and Pastor James Floyd Cotton. Having preceded him in death, Earsley Galloway, Della Craig and Marguerite Galloway

The Homegoing service, celebrating the life of Brother Arthur Cotton Sr., will be held at Harvest Life Changers Church, 14401 Telegraph Road, Woodbridge VA 22192 on Saturday, November 23, 2013. The viewing will be from 11:00 a.m. until the time of service at 12 noon. Interment, Quantico National Cemetery, Triangle, Va on Monday, November 25, 2013 at 11:00 a.m.

Tribute Wall

LG

“ *Uncle Arthur will forever be in my heart.
I hope he knew how much I loved him.
Memories...I have some that I will always treasure.
I am so Thankful that GOD brought him closer to his family and to HIM before HE called him home.
PRAISE THE LORD !!!*

LaVerne Galloway - November 21, 2013 at 11:42 PM