Atiba had four (4) sisters, Sandra Turner, Patricia (Fatty) Lomax, Kemba Colvin, Vanessa Colvin and four (4) brothers, Dennis Turner (deceased), Jawanza Colvin, Alex B Colvin, III and Mark Colvin.

Atiba went to public schools (elementary and middle) and later attended private school for high school at St. Stephens where he played football in Alexandria VA.

After graduating from High School, Atiba joined and served in the United States Army! After his honorable discharge from the United States Army, Atiba returned to Alexandria, VA.

In 2001, Atiba married Sharon Moore and settled in Alexandria, VA. From this marriage, Atiba gained two beautiful bonus daughters, Essence and Shalin.

Years later, Atiba experienced fatherhood with the birth of his two (2) beautiful daughters Aliya and Joanne!!

Atiba was a huge and loyal Washington Redskins (Commanders) fan! He loved to watch the burgundy and gold!!! Especially when the team was playing Dallas as he would go head-to-head with his nephew John (one of the very few Dallas fans in the family). Atiba knew how to have a good time! He loved his nephews and nieces, as he was a big kid at heart!!

Atiba accepted Christ by joining the Love of Christ church in Alexandria, VA and the Apostle Walk Ministries church in La Plata, MD.

“ To the Colvin and Turner families,
I am deeply sorry to hear of Atiba's passing. I transferred into St. Stephen's with Atiba and while we drifted apart after high school, we had spent quite a bit of time together the last few years. Atiba and I had breakfast together on Sundays once a month or so the last two years. It was good to reconnect. I feel terrible that I had not spoken with him or seen him in a couple of months. And even worse that I missed the news of his passing and his memorial service. Please know that my thoughts are with Atiba's family and know that Atiba is resting well in a place where the Commanders never lose.

“ Atiba I will miss you dearly!
In my Father's house are many mansions: if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you. John 14:2

“ I will always remember talking and sharing with Atiba in front of the CVS store in Olde Towne Alexandria. We talked alot about Jesus and eventually shared Scriptures to encourage one another. Atiba was a jokester who would always bring a laugh to brighten your day. He was also a caring person, who would help in any way he could. I will never forget Atiba!
