

Mrs. Barbara Jean Solomon

November 10, 1944 - October 24, 2018

On Wednesday, October 24, 2018, our beloved Barbara Jean Solomon quietly departed this life.

Barbara Jean Solomon was born on November 10, 1944, in Washington, D.C. to the late Ervin and Josephine Coates. She received her education in the District of Columbia Public Schools Systems. Barbara was one of sixteen children. In 1964, Barbara was united in holy matrimony to the late Howard Leroy Solomon. This union was blessed with three children.

Barbara accepted Christ as her Savior at an early age. She joined New Grove Missionary Baptist Church where she served as a faithful member for many years. Barbara loved her church family, and they loved her!

Barbara was a great person with an amazing spirit and a big heart. She would do whatever she could for anybody, whether it was giving her time, feeding you, or just being there for support. She was always willing to lend a helping hand. Barbara enjoyed spending time with her family, eating crabs, dining out with friends and shopping at Macy's. Boy did she love Macy's! Some wondered if she had stock, she shopped there so much. She also had a profound love for James Brown, and would find herself up and moving to one of his songs no matter how she was feeling.

Barbara also had an infectious love for children. So much so, in addition to her three, she raised four more children as her own – Yvette Ingram, Gwendolyn Ingram, Kevin Sumpter and Treniece Sumpter (Keiontay). All of whom she loved dearly.

Barbara was considered a straight shooter, with a witty sense of humor! She was very outspoken, and would tell you exactly how she felt, all in love.

Barbara was preceded in death by her son Rodney Solomon. She leaves to cherish her memory; son, Harold Solomon, daughter MiShaunti Jarrett, son-in-law and partner in crime, Jamall Jarrett. Two sisters, Elva Taylor and Margaret Hines. One brother, Raymond Coates. Three grandchildren, Harold Solomon Jr., Taylor Solomon and Trinity Jarrett. One great granddaughter, Reese Solomon. Her longtime friend, Alonzo Wallace; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.
