

Mr. Carl Wilson Seegars

May 9, 1936 - July 26, 2018

Life's Journey

Carl Wilson Seegars was the oldest of twelve children born to late Joseph Seegars and Almetter Seegars on May 9, 1936 in Lancaster, South Carolina. Carl was educated in Alexandria City Public School system, where he graduated from Parker Gray High School in 1956.

Along with his family, they moved to Alexandria, Virginia in 1943. At an early age, he accepted Christ and was baptized at Saint John Baptist Church. Carl had a kind heart and was a lifetime fan of the Washington Redskins football team. Also, he enjoyed watching old Western shows.

In his early years, Carl had a great love of art, boxing and carpentry. He was an excellent cook and enjoyed frying chicken and fish. His favorite dessert to make was a four layer chocolate cake. During the holiday seasons, Carl was very passionate about waxing his hardwood floors and painting the interior of his home.

He was employed in many capacities early in life; Shell's Gas Station (Attendant), Little Jim's Restaurant (Cook), Alexandria Snack Bar (Head Chef), City of Alexandria School Board (Custodian) but eventually settled in as a butcher and driver with the Metropolitan Poultry and Seafood Company where he has been retired for more than 10 years.

It was very rare you would see Carl without wearing one of his caps and he loved to joke with family and friends. "One of his favorite saying was what will be will be”

On Thursday, July 26, 2018, he made his transitioning at Medstar Southern Maryland Hospital Center surrounded by his loved ones. He was proceeded in death by his parents, sibilings Betty S. Seegars, Melinda A. Seegars-Jimenez, and Ronald L. Seegars. Granddaughter Latoya Davis and great-great-granddaughter Kyzer Duncan.

Carl leaves to cherish his memories, four daughters, Terry Seegars, Tracy (William) Young, Linda Davis, and Carolyn (Larry) Jordan. Three sons, Carlos Bryant (Maxine) Seegars, Steven (Linda) Davis and Karleton (Pattress) Davis; 17 grandchildren, 15 great grandchildren and 2 great great-grandchildren. A loving friend Charlotte Davis. Six sisters, Barbara S. Pinkett, Helen M. Fuller, Deborah R. Worthy, Metter A. Penick , Joyce E. Seegars and Judith M. Quinones. Two brothers Willie and Joseph Seegars. Two aunts, Nannie Kirkland and Mary Wright. Two uncles Joseph (Sandra) Mickle and Gilbert (Laeula) Mickle and many dear nieces, nephews, and other loved ones.
