“ Losing someone you love is one of the hardest things about life. You no longer get to see their face, hear their voice, or cherish your time with them. I'm glad I have, memories to look back on, that last conversation and photographs. I'm going to miss our special moments, Sunday talks and just being around you. Whenever I had an important decision to make, I knew I could talk it over with you and things would be alright.

Aunt Rachel was one of the most influential people in my life since the passing of my mother. She would hold your hand and be your friend, life advisor and at the same time had no problem with setting you on the right path. I'm at peace knowing you will always be walking beside me, unseen, unheard but always near. My Aunt Rachel was a gift that cannot be measured except by the heart. Thank you for being a special Aunt to Jamal and me.

Rhonda,

No one can replace a mom, but God can comfort a grieving heart. He knows what you need during this time much better than anyone else. I am standing by your side in my prayers every night. Aunt Rachel touched so many people's lives, and I know they are all enriched by it. May our Lord bless and comfort you and Baraco during this time.
