

Charles Thomas Dixon Sr.

October 26, 1940 - October 8, 2018

Charles Thomas Dixon Sr, fondly known as “Benny” was born on October 26, 1940 in Alexandria, Virginia to the late George and Margaret Dixon. Charles’ mother passed away when he was only six years old. Consequently, Charles and his four brothers were raised by his father and uncle. He grew up in a section of Alexandria known as the “Berg”; attended Alexandria public schools, was an avid swimmer and champion high diver.

Charles worked as a security guard for the Federal Aviation Administration and retired from the agency after many years of dedicated service. He is preceded in death by his two wives but leaves four children from these unions; daughter, Debbie Taylor (Timothy); sons, Antone, Charles Irvin “Chuck” and Charles Thomas “Ben Jr.” to mourn his passing. He is also survived by his three brothers; Norman, Irvin and Ernest Dixon.

“ Deacon Dixon - I am happy I got the chance to meet your brother once or twice at Third Baptist. My prayers are continuing to be for you and the family. May God bless the memory of your brother Benny and may he rest in peace. Once day the rapture will take place and all who are in Christ will meet again with the promise of never departing forever. I look forward to that promise and that great day of the Lord. God bless and keep you Brother Dixon ... from Minister Mayfield Small, Jr. & Family
