

Mr. Cliff C. Chastine

November 15, 1966 - August 8, 2024

Cliff Chastine, the eldest child of Aldolphus Chastine and Linda Lee (Campbell) Chastine, was born on November 15, 1966. Tragically, Cliff passed away on Thursday, August 8, 2024, after a month-long fight for life, following a massive, inoperable brain bleed.

Cliff, lovingly referred to as “Nay”, grew up in Alexandria, VA with his mother and two siblings. Cliff was a kind, gentle, carefree, charismatic, and sometimes troubled soul. His presence filled any room with humor, light, and joy. He was generous and good-natured, forming lifelong friendships wherever he went, carrying out the sacred precepts of spreading love and care to his fellow man. Cliff was baptized as a child, although he practiced Islam a portion of his adult life, he again accepted Christ as his Lord and Savior on June 23rd of this year.

Cliff leaves to mourn his wife; Robin Harper, brother; Terrance Chastine, sister; Rose Maria Chastine, a stepson; Brock Harper) two nieces; Linda “Muffin” and Tashomi, nephew; Giovanni, an uncle; Michael J. Jones-Carol, aunt; Juanita Barber, two step-grandchildren, a God-sister; Cathy Grimes-Miller, his lifelong best friend; Lisa Adams, a host of cousins, other close relatives, those he mentored and some rock-solid friends (you know who you are).

Cliff is preceded in death by his mother, father, both grandmothers; Mildred Rosalee Jones and Ethel Mitchell, both grandfathers; Thomas Jones and Herman Chastine and two aunts; Ann E. Jones and Kathleen Young. We will miss you so very much Cliff, but we find peace in believing that your spirit is among those that love you as much as we do.
