

Curtis Eugene Christian Jr.

January 23, 1998 - December 16, 2021

CURTIS EUGENE CHRISTIAN, JR., was born on January 23, 1998, at Fairfax Hospital, in Falls Church, Virginia, to Stephani N. Anderson and Curtis Christian, Sr. He departed this life on December 16, 2021. He is preceded in death by his grandfather, Edmund Christian.

Curtis was raised in Alexandria, Virginia, and was known for his beautiful smile. He was educated in Alexandria Public Schools through his junior year at T.C. Williams, and graduated in 2016 from Edison High School, Springfield, Virginia. He also attended Northern Virginia Community College, in Woodbridge, Virginia. Curtis was very athletic in school from the age of eight years old. He loved and played basketball and football until his senior year. Curtis also played basketball for the Alexandria City Public School Recreation Center and Amateur Athletic Union. He was a great effective jump shooter and played great defense. His teammates nicknamed him "CC".

Prior to his death, he was employed as a maintenance assistant for a TEMP Agency. During his life, Curtis also worked as a driver for FedEx and Domino's Pizza and as a counselor's aide at Charles Houston Alexandria Recreation Center. Curtis dreamed of owning his own business, but his dream was short lived. Curtis was loving, respectful, and had a great sense of humor. He enjoyed people and eating home cooked food, especially those prepared by his father and his aunt Valerie. Curtis had two beautiful children by his childhood sweetheart, Taseya Gladney McBride, a daughter, Amiya Gladney Christian, age five and son, King C. Christian, age three. Curtis was an excellent father and provider for his children and loved them deeply. He enjoyed the quality time they shared together and would do anything for them. He loved family and made sure that his children knew their families on both sides.

Curtis is survived by his siblings from the oldest to youngest, Jamal Ford, Jakari Christian, Chaunice Knight, Ke'yra Smith, Jovan Pope, Joy Anderson, and Chavone Christian, grandparents, Louis B. Anderson, Jr., Deborah M. Henson and Alice Christian plus a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, and cousins.
