Carolyn,

My sister, Emma, and I extend our deepest condolences to you and the rest of the McCrae family. We pray that God's love, goodness, and mercy will strengthen you, and bring you peace. As we think of Dan, we remember his sense of humor, the beautiful smile he flashed, and his warm friendly disposition. Dan's art of conversation was ever present and he was a master of conversation. We enjoyed our interactions with Dan whenever he attended Roberts Memorial United Methodist Church. Dan always referred to us as "the Coleman girls." And, Dan will be truly missed by, "the Coleman girls."
