

Dante Unique Coleman

March 11, 1997 - December 29, 2017

Dante Unique Coleman, 20, of Alexandria passed away December 29, 2017. He was born to the late Shawntae Coleman on March 11, 1997 in Arlington, VA. Dante attended Fairfax County Public Schools. Dante was such a fun loving young man who loved people as much as he loved life.

His smile was contagious, and his heart was golden, his mild gentle soul had a way of melting your heart. Dante was bold, brave and courageous. He was a slim gentle giant, a big guy with a big heart. Dante was a pretty quiet person, until you got to know him. Dante was beginning to get to know himself, what he liked and what he wanted in life. He aspired to be a model, he had the right attitude and looks to be a successful model. In his spare time, he loved to hang with his friends and enjoyed watching football and rooting for the Dallas Cowboys. His real passion was being a father and spending quality time with his family.

Dante had a unique and special relationship with his big brother Asante. Growing up you wouldn't see one without seeing the other, one and the same and yet different at the same time. Each had something that the other did not, something that the other needed. They were always there for one another and would do anything to help each other out. If you asked either one of them they would say "Yes, I am my brother's keeper". They have been through everything together, the good, the bad and the ugly. The bond they had will always keep them connected.

Dante leaves behind to cherish his memory daughter Eliah and son Nasir, grandmother Debra Coleman, whom he affectionally calls Ma, brother and best friend Asante Coleman and brother Tamonte Coleman, sister Londen Coleman. Three aunts Unique and Kiara Coleman and Chanelle Newman. Uncle Donte Newman. He is also survived by his special friend Bria Cleveland who he loved and adored. Best friends Jared Musgrove, Antonio Lawton and Marquie Taeon Newman. A host of great aunts, great uncles and cousins. Dante was proceeded in death by his mother Shawntae Coleman.

Dante,

My heart cries out for you this is so cruel and heartbreaking.

Such a senseless cowardly act to take you away from us. You had a golden heart that pleased even God himself.

Just the mere thought of you at this moment somehow seems make my heart smile through my tears.

I'm crushed Dante, how do we go on without you here with us? I will know longer hear you saying "Hey Ma", I love you Ma, or see your beautiful smile with those Pearly whites.

My handsome grandson, I thought losing your mom was hard but this one right here is a really, really tough one for me. How could they take you from us?!!

I couldn't have loved you more than if I had birthed you and given you life myself.

I love you my sweet, handsome prince with my everything. I pray that when God reached down to pick you up he allowed your MOM to help carry you to your Heavenly Home.

My life will never be the same ... Smh

I love you handsome!
