Edward Eugene Carter “Genie”, son of the late Moses Edward “Ed” Carter and Selene “Lena” Cynthia Jefferson Carter, was born on November 21, 1941, in Lynchburg, VA.

Genie accepted the Lord Jesus Christ as his personal savior at an early age. Genie attended Charles Houston Elementary and Parker Gray High School in Alexandria, VA. He was a jack of all trades and retired from Virginia Power after more than 20 years of dedicated service. When he wasn’t working on something mechanically, he was looking at old cowboy movies.

He also had one sister, Barbara Pearson and one brother, Larry D. Carter; two sisters-in-law: Adelene McKenney (Larry) and Gladys Richardson; and three aunts: Virginia Jefferson, Lea Carter, and Doris Grinage; ten great grandchildren, and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and many friends who will always remember the love and devotion Genie shared with everyone he knew. We will all miss him very, very much.

My husband, my Best Friend

A light from my life is gone

A voice I love is still
A place is vacant in my heart,
Which never can be filled.
Farewell, dear one, my love
For you will always last.
