

Ervin Junior Sabb

January 21, 1940 - July 30, 2019

Mr. Ervin Sabb departed this life to be with the good Lord on Tuesday, July 30, 2019, in Arlington, Virginia. He was born on January 21, 1940, in Fuquay Varina, North Carolina and was preceded in death by his loving parents, Mattie Bell Sabb and Moses A. Sabb and sister, Ruth Will Slack.

Ervin grew up and was educated in the Wake County Public School System. After graduating from Fuquay Consolidated High School, he enlisted in the United States Army and served his country honorably during the Vietnam War Era for two years. Upon honorable discharge, Ervin moved to Alexandria, VA and had a long and successful career as an entrepreneur. He was the owner of the Hair Clinic on Queen Street. Additionally, he was a professional driver. Over a span of 50 years, Ervin worked as a master barber and professional cab driver, attended Washington Bible College in 1995, and became an active member of Ebenezer Baptist Church Alexandria, VA until his health declined.

Ervin was well known for his kind heart, gentle spirit, warm smile and selflessness. In between barbershop debates and banter, Ervin would often help whomever he could, often placing others' needs above his own, which is undoubtedly why he was and will always be loved by so many. His hobbies included betting on horses at Historical Rosecroft Raceway in Maryland, fishing, playing cards, and enjoying his favorite meals at Red Lobster or the Waffle House in Alexandria. He was an avid Dallas Cowboys fan, and a tenacious lottery player.

On July 30, 2019, Ervin's loving light of life transitioned to his place with God. His last 5 years of life, residing in Arlington, VA were spent surrounded with love from his children, siblings, and friends. He enjoyed each day being attended to by his amazing caregiver (Jamima), great conversations and many laughs. He will forever be missed for his quick wit, charm and storytelling about the good ole days.

He leaves to cherish his memories three children: Anthony Leach(Sharon), Lane Galloway, and Saritah Sabb Grandchildren: Sentrel Leach, Shannon Leach, Delane Galloway, Bria Leak, Taevon Palmer, Tommy Ratliff, Daisha Galloway, Delane Galloway, Bria Leak, Ramon Beam.

Ten siblings: Rebecca Sabb of Newport News, VA; Roy Lee Sabb (Ann) of Georgetown, TX, Vernell Sabb & Mozelle Sabb of Newport News, VA; Louis Sabb of Alexandria, VA; Isiah Sabb, Elijah Sabb (JoAnn), Moses Sabb, Robert Sabb (Jennifer) and Ronnie Sabb of Hampton, VA; and a host of many other family and friends.

“ To the Sabb family I was unaware of Ervin's passing til his service was over, but my sincere love and sympathy goes out to the family. Always heard about his barber career. He had went on to live from home before I got to know him. You all hold each other up and stay close. Time never stop.

“ I didn't know Ervin well, however, my family did, so on behalf of the Wards, Jordans, and Barbers, I want to Thank Ervin for his service and Friendship to my male family members and the city of Alexandria, VA. May the Lord and the wonderful memories always keep a smile on your face when you think of the great deeds Ervin performed in the community of Alexandria and for the citizens of Alexandria. A man of integrity is what I was told of Mr. Ervin Sabb.

“ My condolences goes out to the family of as we all know him as Irving. I have so many memories of Mr. Irving and "The Shop" on Queen st that only one could guess. Too many to name. I feel like Irving's (the shop) as well as himself was a family within itself. The man had tremendous humor without even trying. I pretty much grew up in there. When I first heard of the shop being closed I knew that the area would never be the same. I myself along with many other generations will truly miss his presence. May he rest in paradise.
