“ Mrs. Dickens and I worked together. She was a beautiful person, and a joy to talk to. Patricia once she realized you and I went to school together, she loved telling me about your accomplishments. When I saw your dad and found out she passed I was so sorry to hear about your loss.

“ My heart is still crying for the loss of my Gma EssiePooh, she was just as sweet as my Gma Edith. Tanita knows how much they had in common, the biggest thing is they LOVED their granddaughters and they both treated our friends as their own granddaughters. I will ALWAYS love and my remember Gma EssiePooh for the role model that she was to me and the love that she had for Granddad, Ma'Pat, Tanita, AJ, and her family. RIP Gma EssiePooh, I am sure God is well please with His good and faithful servant. You maybe gone but you will NEVER be forgotten.

“ What does one say, when your best friend and confidante is no longer around for you to call, talk to or hang out with? My mom always had an encouraging word for me and supported everything I did. As a matter of fact she supported everyone in our family & spoiled each of us. I miss calling you several times a day. I was blessed to have you for 56 years. God allowed you to see me rec'd my two masters, start my ministry & to spend a week with you prior to graduating this May. You were the example of a virtuous woman. Mom I know God told you well done, good and faithful servant.

“ Grandma Essie, as I affectionately called her was a true blessing to my friend Tanita. Although I didn't get the opportunity to meet her in person I talked to her on the phone and was very aware through Tanita what an extraordinary grandma she was up until the very end!! Although this time is so very difficult for the family, the way she lived her life is the true testimony to who she really was!! I am happy to have known her....my sympathy goes out to the entire family, friends of the Dinkens family!!!The McRae/Robertson family
