

George Hollins

July 24, 1944 - August 5, 2013

George Hollins peacefully departed this life on Monday, August 5, 2013, in the comfort of his home in Alexandria, VA. He was the son of the late Charles Henry Hollins, Sr. and Lottie Berry Hollins.

George accepted Christ at an early age and was baptized along with his siblings at Saint John's Baptist Church in Alexandria, VA under the leadership of the late Reverend West.

George attended Alexandria City Public Schools, Lyles Crouch, Charles Houston, Parker-Gray High School and Luther Jackson High School in Merrifield, VA. where he developed the nickname "Pop". He was a great athlete with a passion for gymnastics, he also enjoyed playing basketball, football, body building and ping pong. It was hard to beat him in any sports; he received many awards and trophies.

His first job was a paper boy with the Washington Post along with his brother. They both saved enough money to buy their 1st TV for the family. After high school he was later employed with Blue Plains in Washington, DC, the City of Alexandria, Meade Memorial Church, YMCA and T.C. Williams High School. George was a quiet and peaceful man with a humble spirit; he was well known, and liked throughout the community. He enjoyed watching Western movies in his spare time and spending quality time with family.

The visitation and viewing will be held at Meade Memorial Episcopal Church, 322 North Alfred Street, Alexandria, VA on Thursday, August 15, 2013 from 10:00 a.m. until the time of service at 11:00 , The Committal will immediately

follow in Bethel Cemetery, Alexandria, VA

“ My sincere condolences to the family. I am at a loss for words. Pop knew that he was well loved by you all. That, in itself was a blessing to him. May God give you comfort. I too, will miss him.
