

Mrs. Gloria Estelle Kee

January 6, 1931 - December 10, 2014

Gloria Estelle Kee was born in Accokink, Virginia on January 6, 1931. She joined Jesus in heaven on December 10, 2014. She was one of four children born from the union of Ervin and Ethel Proctor. As a youth, Gloria was baptized at Woodlawn Methodist Church, where she sang in the junior choir and served on the usher board, and remained a faithful member there until she was called up to be with the Lord.

Gloria attended Parker Grey High School in Alexandria, Virginia. Upon graduation, she landed a job at the Census Bureau, where she worked until she met and married (August 21, 1951) her soul mate of 64 years, Edwin Kee.

In 1950, Gloria caught Edwin's eye at church and from that point on they were inseparable. The couple traveled overseas together for Edwin's military career. They spent 3 years in France and borne their second son, Kenneth Kee. Gloria gave birth to their first son, Wayne Kee, in 1952 in Washington, D.C.

Gloria was dedicated to her children and grandchildren. She made it her personal mission to be the best mother and grandmother on earth, and she succeeded. Everything revolved around making her children happy. She catered to them in any and every way that she could. She cooked, cleaned, and spoiled them beyond comprehension. Gloria was a giver and her family absolutely adored her. She was a shining star!

Gloria was a jack-of-all-trades. She was proficient in a variety of areas. She loved to laugh and she was simply, hilarious. In fact, she was funny enough to make a career as an amateur comedian. She was also an excellent dresser. She was, as she would say, as sharp as a tack! In our opinion, there's nobody on earth who can out-dress our beloved, Gloria. But wait there's more; she has always been a cooking connoisseur. Martha Stewart has nothing on Gloria Kee. She could throw down on the stove, the Food Network should've given her a cooking show, it's their loss. Additionally, Gloria was an impeccable cleaner. Her house was always spotless, 100% of the time. Gloria Kee was the original Susie homemaker; there was nothing she couldn't do on the homefront.

Gloria was an extremely compassionate person. She would help anyone who needed her. Gloria was always ready to lend a hand, whether it was money, labor, or offering food. There were no limits to her kindness. Gloria is a testament of benevolence and love. If you reached out for her hand, she'd touch your heart.

Gloria Kee was a wife, mother, grandmother, and sister. She leaves to cherish her memory, her devoted husband: Edwin Kee. Her dutiful son: Kenneth Kee and daughter-in-law: Lynette Kee. Four loved grandchildren: Kenneth Jr., Meghan, Jonathan, and Melanie Kee. A sister/ best friend: Barbara Daniels, and a host of nieces, nephews, and friends.

Gloria Kee was a vibrant woman and a lover of life. She will never be forgotten. We miss her terribly, but we know she's in a better place. If Jesus was to ask Gloria if she'd want to come back on earth today, I'm sure she'd say, "no." Nothing on earth can compare to the love and happiness I'm experiencing here in heaven. This homegoing celebration is not goodbye, but rather “see you later.”
