“ Grace was a loving person. I truly enjoyed being in her company. Whether dressing up on Halloween, celebrating other holidays, playing card, and the only true Virginian that was a Dallas Cowboy fan. You are missed, but I thank God for the memories!!

“ I will always remember playing bid whist with Grace. Win or lose she would always be happy just spending time with Pat, Debbie, for our girls game. You are in your heavenly home now and finally at peace. Love you and miss you much!
