

Jacqueline Anita Barnes

May 25, 1986 - April 19, 2015

On May 25, 1986 in Washington, D.C., the late Walter Mann and Jacqueline A. Barnes were blessed with a baby girl they named Jacqueline A. Barnes (Jackie). Jackie attended the Alexandria City Public Schools and was raised by her father, great-grandmother and grandmother.

Although Jackie's life was full of trials and tribulations, she remained humble, gentle, loving and respectful. She loved her children and family. Jackie had the potential to become a great basketball player, for she had many supporters here in the city; however, that dream was not realized.

Her mother, father and grandmother, Ernestine Mann, preceded her in death.

She leaves to cherish her memories, her children: Tanasha, Ellise, and Waltrell; Stepmother, Pamela Mann; Grandparents, Carl and Naomi Wright; two (2) brothers, Rick (Crystal) and Harold; two (2) nephews; one niece; and a host of uncles, aunts, and many cousins whom she loved dearly. Also, Godparents - Pop and Angie.

All of the grieving is over. I've been set FREE!

Celebrate!

“ Rest Forever In Peace Jacqueline Anita Barnes. I met you only for a brief moment but, with you it's never a dull moment. You were caring, loving, well mannered, a sweet-heart, and always kept a smile on your face. I wish I had a chance to meet your family but, maybe one day in life God will bring us together. I appreciated you while you were here on earth and will forever, have you and your family in my heart to celebrate all of the good times you had here and how much you inspired my life and helped me become the young Women I'm today. I Love you and watch over your little Angels (your children) and your Wise Angels (your Family) May you Forever Rest In Peace. Love always LaTonya Cooper 12-13-2016
