“ There are so many wonderful things I remember about Sista as I know her to say but the thing most dear to her earthly mission is her commitment to Education! Jean was my friend and first Cousin whom I h. Known all of my life. She and my mo. Was almost the same person in their appearances. She enjoyed church and we laughed in Secret that she may have been the heir to the Ministry of our grandfather Rev. Sam "Diddy" Macon. Miss our conversation s

“ To the Family of Mrs. Wells. You have my condolences and prayers. She was very instrumental in my son's High School educational experience. He was her favorite teacher even staying in touch after his graduation in 1991. William Evans JR.

“ Mrs. Wells AKA "My Queen"--I will never forget your generosity as I was a first year teacher in the Business Department at West Potomac High School. You helped guide me as a teacher, mentee and friend. Mrs. Wells was always one of the subs I would use when I was out. Let's face it, I only trusted her and Pat Renner with my students. Mrs. Wells taught me alot about the African American culture as well. She opened my eyes to the life she lived as a child in North Carolina. Mrs. Wells loved hard, she was a woman of God and spread the word everywhere she went and with every step she took. Jean, may you rest in peace. There is a special place in heaven for someone like you. You live on in our hearts.

“Gone but never forgotten.

Brother Wells and Preston(Prince□) - Stay strong in the Lord and the Power of His Might and we shall all meet at the Banks of the Jordan River.

My good good friend has been called by The Master to the sweet bye and bye.

Take good care of yourselves and each other because you know she would have it no other way.

Rest in Peace my dear good friend until that great get'n up day fare ye well.

Love and positive 💕 thoughts praying without ceasing.

Mrs. Jean C Wells, was a lovely, thoughtful, sharing lady. She cherished all of her family and friends. I pray that Preston, Sr, and Preston, Jr. will keep her memories alive. You are both in my thoughts and prayers and may God continuously bless you both. God Bless. 🙏
