

Mrs. Jeannette "Chickiebell" Davis

June 7, 1927 - August 15, 2014

Jeannette "Chickiebell" Davis was born on June 7, 1927 in Alexandria, Virginia to the late John Augustus and Delthea Bell. Her brother, John "Junnie" Bell and sister, Alma Bell preceded in death, Chickiebell began her career with the Virginia Unemployment Commission and served there for 18 years before retiring to take care of her first grandchild, her heart and her baby Shaquille.

Chickiebell was a no cut cards kind of woman, she said what she meant and meant what she said. If you cut her wrong, you would surely get cursed out (all in love). She had a heart of gold and loved everyone and would help anyone if she could. She always had a kind word and gesture for every person she met. Her smile was infectious and you couldn't help but fall in love with her.

Her favorite past time was attending any and every funeral in the City of Alexandria, cutting through Ross, walking to McDonalds in Old Town, and going up and down Queen Street a hundred times a day. It was nothing to see her walking all over the City of Alexandria, with a cup of coffee in her hand.

She loved her family and was so full of life; even in her last days she remained witty and feisty!

Chickiebell leaves to cherish her memories; a daughter, Paulette Taylor, grandchildren; Rochelle Davis (John), Antonye Taylor, Antonyo Taylor,

Reginald Taylor, great-grandchildren; Shaquille, Dejoun, Reginald Nehemiah, Nijie, Ajahnae, Malachi, Antonye Jr., Amiah, a great great grand-child; Taraji, sister; Mary Burgess, a loving devoted caregiver and friend; Bonnie Bradley plus a host of other relatives and friends..

“ God has taken my mother home he knew the loneliness i was not strong. With grace and mercy he sent to me a mother aunt grandma. The days went by the years so fast I remember the hugs kisses and cries. My heavenly father gave me this blessing to take care of our Chickie. God gave me a gift and know its his time for he said I come to take her home for she is mine. Im no longer lonely selfish or spoiled just grateful of the times god gave her to love us all.

“ I only knew grandma chickie for three years but it seems like an lifetime I consider her as my Virginia grandmother fun loving she said what she mean and she meant what she said im going to miss her so much as I know others will also are fondest moments was at bath time bonnie would always be telling us what to do mrs chickie would always say " Dam I'm Glad She's Gone And I Wish She Would Shut Her....." Bonnie would say "I Herd That" we would laugh so hard. And at the very end I saw her smile and I talked with an angel and it was then that I knew she would be okay. Two days later I lost my Virginia grandma "Love You Chickie I Lost My Grandma"

“ I am so sorry for the loss of your loved one, and would like to offer my condolences to the family. Death is such a terrible thing for a family to go through. I am truly grateful that I have the truth about death and it is located in Jehovah God's word the Bible. Please try to find comfort in this. James 5:28, 29

“ Mrs. Chickie was a sweet, honest to goodness woman. She and my mother, Jeanette E. Taylor, were best of friends. Mrs. Chickie would visit my mother daily and the two of them truly enjoyed each others company. My sisters, Vikki and Donna, and I do believe she is up in heaven with our mother and the two of them are still enjoying each others company.

Love you Penny,

“ When I worked in Old Town many years ago, no matter what time of day I took my lunch break I would run into Ms. Chickiebell. We would laugh and talk and then as we would part ways, she'd say...see you tomorrow, so Ms. Chickie, I won't say good bye, just see you tomorrow. A true lady and fixture of our Alexandria community, you will be missed. Sleep in heavenly peace.

“ Chickie is one of those people you will never forget. I am happy to have known her. Chickie showed compassion, love, and gave you the truth (even when you didn't ask for it). She never made me call her Ms. Chickie but I knew where the line was and my place in it! I will miss that amazing smile whenever we saw each other. She did not demand love and respect, it was freely given. That's love. Hard to believe no more meeting her on the streets of Alexandria, but we will meet again on the streets of heaven. RIP sweet Chickie.

“ I will always remember my play "grandmother". She sat in the fellowship hall of our church each Sunday while I taught Sunday school. The children's nursery was located in the same space. She didn't like noise, unruly children and cold. Despite all that she stayed back with me to assist. She always called a child in need of discipline to her and whispered what she wanted them to do or say. They listened and did exactly as she said. She was a wonderful old lady who was time enough for anyone despite her age. She kept me in stitches while telling the truth. How many of us young people have that quality. I will cherish all the memories she is leaving behind. Another flower gone to grace God's throne. I know she will be singing with the choir, all day long.

“ Ms Chickiebell, this woman was real. I loved her spirit she and I would talk to her a lot about my son and how bad he was she would say things like just keep loving him no matter what. You stand by his side and keep telling him what he need to hear and not what he want to hear. She kind of step in when my Mom pass Penny and I were hanging then she did not judge people she would tell you about yourself. I loved this lady we talked about a lot of stuff even in the mist of my storm she would still listen. I love you Ms Chickiebell for being here for me when I didn't know which way to turn. You will always be in my heart. May you RIP.
