

Jesse Lee Clay Jr.

April 14, 1943 - April 30, 2014

Jesse Lee Clay Jr. departed this life on Wednesday, April 31, 2014 at his home in Alexandria, Virginia from a massive stroke at 71 years of age. He was born April 14, 1943, the only child of the late Jesse Lee Clay Sr. and Elvira Clay of Stamford Texas. Jesse attended school in Texas. He attended High School in Victoria Texas. He was a very, very smart man. He always climbed to be at the top of his class. After graduation, Jesse enlisted in the Air Force on January 12, 1961. He was stationed at Andrews Air Force Base. He served in the Air Force for six and a half years and later got a job at Western Electric which eventually was known as AT&T. Jesse worked there for 30 years until they went out of business. He also worked for Bell Atlantic for seven years until he retired in 2007. In September 1974, Jesse met Rachel Anderson while working at Western Electric. They began a courtship and decided to marry November 1985. From this marriage three children were born, Jesse, Robin and Rachel. Jesse was very talented in his own right. He received an award for reading 100 books in one week and received trophies for his wood carvings. He worked very hard to take care of his family. He never missed a day of work. He always provided for his family. Jesse and Rachel joined Third Baptist Church in Alexandria, Virginia. Their family were active members of the church.

Jesse is survived by his very devoted and loving wife, Rachel Clay; two sons Jesse L. Clay, Jr and Robin M. Clay Jr.; one daughter, Rachel Clay and a host of other relatives and friends

Cemetery Details

Mt. Comfort Cemetery

6600 So. Kings Highway
Alexandria, VA 22306

Previous Events

Viewing

MAY 9. 11:00 AM - 12:00 PM (ET)

First Baptist Church
2932 King Street, Alexandria
Alexandria, VA 22302

funeral service

MAY 9. 12:00 PM (ET)

First Baptist Church
2932 King Street, Alexandria
Alexandria, VA 22302