

Kathleen Hollis

December 1, 1909 - October 1, 2012

On December 1, 1909, Kathleen Elizabeth Hollis was born in Alexandria, Virginia, to the late Robert and Bertie Jones. She was the oldest of four children. On October 1, 2012, our beloved Mother, Grandmother and Aunt peacefully transitioned from her earthly home to a new home in glory.

Kathleen was educated in Washington, DC at Armstrong High School. She loved cooking, sewing, playing the piano, puzzles, and spelling. Although she was known to many as “Big Ma”, her first nickname was “Kat”.

On June 15, 1937, Kathleen Elizabeth Jones was joined in holy matrimony to the late Tom Allen Hollis, who departed this life in 1995. Through their years of continued shared love and happiness, they started a family. They were blessed with four daughters; Thomasine, Audrey, Marsha (deceased), Jean, one son, Orlando and Stepson, Harold Jackson. There are 11 Grandchildren, 26 Great-grandchildren, and 5 Great, great grandchildren.

Kathleen began her Christian walk at Ebenezer Baptist Church, Alexandria, VA, where Reverend Booker baptized her. She later joined the fellowship of Greater New St. Paul Baptist Church located in Washington, DC.

She was a long time member of Israel Lodge #138 in Alexandria, Virginia.

Kathleen was known for feeding the neighborhood children, having functions in the backyard and playing basketball and baseball in her alley, now officially named the “Hollis Alley”.

Kathleen was a strong willed, yet compassionate, lovable, kind, reasonable, humorous, caring, and clever woman. She enjoyed being with her family, and memories of her life will always be treasured.

The viewing and visitation will be held at Roberts Memorial United Methodist Church, 606A South Washington Street, Alexandria, VA on Saturday, October 6, 2012 from 10 a.m. until time of service at 11 a.m. Interment, Bethel Cemetery.
