*Dad,
I love you...
My heart is so broken from this.
I will never ever forget you, your laugh, your smile, the jokes and any memories we shared. I won't say goodbye...
I'll see you again
I love you*

*Kevin was much more than a cousin. He was more of a brother that I never had. In the early 70's, we both worked in Crystal City, and I would carpool with him, which gave us lots of time to bond. Later, I purchased a car, telling him, it was time for him to carpool with me.
We had lots of good times together. Even occasionally hanging out on paydays. I will miss him deeply. But the memories will forever remain in my heart. I promised to be there for his beautiful wife. I WILL stick with my commitment. RIP DEAR COUSIN/BROTHER, until we meet again.
TO KNOW HIM, WAS TO LOVE HIM & HIS WARM SMILE.*

“ Several years ago, Kevin and I ran into each other in KMart. He was soo excited to tell me that he had accepted Christ as his savior and had joined Alfred Street Baptist Church. We spent about 2 1/2 hours standing in the middle of the aisle as he just couldn't stop talking about his new found faith.

Then we ran into each other again last year; we didn't talk too long but he shared that he was ill but trusting God. He was again very excited and happy to tell me he had gotten married, how much he loved his wife, and how happy he was.

Mrs. Quander, as Kevin is at peace sleeping in Jesus, may you find peace as you look forward to seeing him again at the grand reunion.

Kevin, my heart is very heavy but I know that you are now sitting at the throne of God with His angels. I will miss seeing your smile and chatting with you when we meet up. May God bless your family with peace and comfort during this time.

Gail Arrington-Jones - January 07, 2016 at 12:16 PM

Kevin you were such a fun person to share so many laughs- always had a smile on your face. I know that the smile from heaven will shine like a star as you gaze down on your family and friend may you rest in peace no more pain no more worries just the love of God as he protect your sole

Kevin with the gentle and wise spirit! Man, I thoroughly enjoyed our time together in the gospel group "Son of the Cross". We had such great fellowships doing radio, tv, and even cutting a record. The spirit of Christ has been in you every since I have known you and you blessed all who crossed your path. Thanking God for sharing you with us for the time you were on this earth. Love you Man!!

“ Kevin, Your smile, gracious demeanor and kind, loving spirit will always be remembered. I am forever grateful to have been your co-worker at the City. It is wonderful to be able to see photos of you and how happy you were with your beautiful new bride. I hope to have the privilege to meet her one day. We will keep your family in our prayers and hearts. Love, Patsieann Misiti
