

Kiyomi N. Williams

May 14, 1983 - January 20, 2014

On May 14, 1983, a very, very special gift entered into this world. Her name was Kiyomi Nataya Williams, she was the pride and joy of Mr. Marvin Jenkins and Mrs. Valerie Carter. On January 20, 2014, she entered into eternal rest.

She grew up in a little city called Alexandria, Virginia. Ki was affectionately called a little tomboy, who loved to cheer and play basketball. Ki and her big brother had a very special bond. She actually thought she owned Marvin. As a toddler, Ki would hit Marvin and make him cry. When their mother would tell Marvin to hit her back, he would cry and say, " I can't hit her that's my little sister and I love her. Marvin would then ask " Ki, why you treat me like that." Ki would never respond.

Kiyomi attended the city of Alexandria Public schools. She graduated from T.C Williams High School in June 2002. She then attended Johnson C. Smith University in August 2002. Kiyomi, graduated from Everest Institute in Arlington, Virginia where she earned a Medical Assistant Certificate. Prior to working at Care 1st, Blue Cross Blue Shield in Washington DC. She worked at Virginia Hospital Center in Arlington, Virginia.

She leaves to cherish her memories with her mother and father, Valerie Carter and Marvin Jenkins, one brother Marvin Williams, a very special friend, that she called her "future" Ricardo Heart. She leaves her stepfather Charles Carter, and her nephew Marvin Williams Jr (Fat- Daddy) with her memories too. She also leaves her memories behind with her Grandmother Marilyn Williams, her Grandfather Steve Fox and Grandparents Artis and Georgia Jenkins who preceded her in death. Her Great Grandmother Eliza Elizabeth Washington preceded her in death as well. She leaves to cherish two God-mothers Marsha Nelson and Anita Henry, one God-sister Madison Jones, and one God-daughter Niylah-Joy Marie Morant. Six uncles plus four preceded her in death. Four aunts, one great aunt preceded her in death, three aunt in laws and one uncle in law. She grew an extremely special relationship with her aunt in law Sheavon Williams better known as her "Bay Boo." Her host of great aunts, uncles, cousin and special friends she leaves her great memories.
