

LaVerne Lucinda Coleman

January 17, 1948 - March 9, 2018

LaVerne Lucinda Coleman, born on January 17, 1948, was the oldest of four children born to Deacon Albert and the late Florine Coleman in Alexandria, Virginia. LaVerne accepted Jesus Christ at an early age and was an active member of Ebenezer Baptist Church.

LaVerne graduated from Luther Jackson High in Merrifield Fairfax County Virginia and achieved a Bachelor of Science in Business Administration from Virginia Union University in Richmond, Virginia. She decided that Social Work was her calling.

Her first position was with Alexandria Health Department, she experienced various levels of social work. While working with Fairfax County Health Department she worked with many programs such as Well Babies, Refugee Health, Women, Infant and Children (WIC). She not only achieved satisfaction in assisting her clients but, also encouraged her co-workers to reach their goals. She uniquely touched many lives. Her skills for foreign languages and understanding her client needs serviced her well in her career. She retired from Fairfax County Health Department after servicing thirty years of service. Loves for music lead her to join the Junior Choir at Ebenezer Baptist Church, Luther Jackson High School choir, Jackie Henry Greene Singers and the Senior Choir at Alfred Street Baptist Church. At Alfred Street Baptist Church she rendered her time to work with Brothers Keeper and Feed the Hungry. During her senior in high school she participated in Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority Inc. Debutante Program. LaVerne volunteered for several years at the Alexandria Black History Museum. She truly touched many lives with her ready smile and hugs.

LaVerne leaves to treasure her memory: her father Deacon Albert Coleman; one son Michael; one sister, Eleanor; one brother Albert; two sisters-in-law Delphine and Karen; two nephews Norvell (Corletta); Adam (Candice) one niece and April (Justin); several great-nieces and nephews. Astrid, Lilyana, Jordan, Kanden, Xavier, Miles, and Keana ; cousins, Katherine Price, Janice L. Brown , Janet L. Stevenson and William Price, Rubette Brunson, Juanita Cheeks and a host of other cousins, relatives, friends and childhood friend Sharon Jones.
