Lynette McFadden, the first born of James and Doris Boggan was born on December 18, 1940 in Mt. Gilead North Carolina. She transitioned on July 22, 2017 at Duke Hospital in Durham, North Carolina.

Lynette, also known affectionately as Nettie, Lynn and Mac, began her early education in Alexandria, Virginia at Saint Joseph Catholic School. She also attended school in Montgomery County, North Carolina before finishing at Parker Gray High School in Alexandria, Virginia.

After completing high school, Lynette met and married Robert Lee McFadden. To this union two children were born, Carolyn (Pookie) McFadden and Robert (Bobby) McFadden, whom preceded her in death.

During Lynette's life time she was employed with various jobs, including the United States Postal Service, where she was employed for twenty-seven years. After retiring from the Postal Service, due to her love for children, she became a daycare provider for three years. As soon as Lynette and Carolyn relocated to Chapel Hill, North Carolina prior to settling in Durham, North Carolina, where her last days were spent enjoying life. Lynette had an enormous heart. She never met a stranger, nor did she shy away from helping her fellow man. She also had many hobbies and natural skills.

In celebration of this triumphant occasion, we will remember Lynette for hosting and cooking for family activities, decorating for weddings and parties, gardening with her mother, where awards were won in John Roberts. Most of all, we will remember Lynette's infectious smile that could illuminate a room.

She is preceded in death by her father and mother, husband, Robert Lee, son Bobby McFadden, one brother, George Mack Boggan, three sisters, Hattie Ann Boggan, Rozetta Boggan and Terri Pittman. Lynette leaves to cherish and honor her memory her loving and devoted daughter, Carolyn McFadden; five siblings, two brothers, James (Liz) Brooks and Jeffrey Wolford; three sisters, Doris Boggan Johnson, Diana (Alvin) Taylor and Remail Bowlding; one sister-in-law, Pamela Boggan; one aunt Bertha Davis; one great aunt, Inez, a large extended family of nieces, great nieces, nephews, great nephews, cousins, other relatives and so many great friends.
