

Margaret Ann Oliver

September 29, 1947 - December 7, 2019

Margaret Ann Oliver, was called home on Saturday, December 7th 2019 at the Houston Methodist Hospital in Houston, Texas. With her children by her bedside, God summoned his good and faithful servant home to eternally rest in heavenly peace.

Margaret was blessed into our world on September 29, 1947 in Greenville, South Carolina to her late parents, Margaret and Samuel Chiles. In June 1950, they relocated to Northern Virginia. She attended Alexandria City Public Schools graduating from Parker-Gray High School in 1968.

In June of 1975 she accepted Christ as her Lord and Savior and became a devout member and missionary at St. Paul Pentecostal Church (known now as St. Paul Christian Center). While continuing her religious education, she graduated with an Certificate of Intermediate Ministry from Praise and Deliverance Bible Institute in 1994.

Commencing in 1971, she began a long illustrious career which spanned four decades with the Department of State in Washington, D.C. In 2006, she later transferred to the Houston, Texas branch where she retired in May of 2011 to her home in Spring, Texas.

Margaret was a loving mother. A loyal and caring person to many friend, coworkers and those who stumbled across her path. She was also a devoted woman of God. She loved attending church at New Light Christian Center in Houston, Texas where she also volunteered. She was an avid reader of the word. She was genuinely a great person at heart to know and love. With each passing day she will truly be missed.

Margaret is survived by her children: Michael Oliver, Norman Oliver and Kia McMillan (husband-Chaucer); grandchildren: Nijah, Michael, Deontre, Jalen and Kayla; great-grandchildren: Kaniya, DaQuan and Jamari.
