

Mariette "Fats" Galloway

October 1, 1952 - January 25, 2014

Mariette Senita Galloway, affectionately known as, "Fats" ended her lengthy journey on Saturday, January 25, 2014, at the Alexandria Hospital. Born October 1, 1952, as the ninth child to the late Dr. Royal S. and Earsley Galloway. Fats was educated in the Alexandria Public School System finishing high school at T.C. Williams. She was baptised at a young age under the teachings of the late Bishop Henry W. Roberts of the Antioch Church of Christ. She volunteered as an administrative receptionist at the Alexandria Hospital. Fats was a family person. She loved family gatherings with her kids and grandkids. She most especially enjoyed laughing!! A good joke kept her happy. She was a long-time committed supporter of the W.E.C.A.N. Program for at-risk youth of Washington, DC.

Fats was preceded in death by her parents, Royal and Earsley and two siblings, Debra and Douglas. She leaves to cherish her memory: one daughter, Kaucia; two sons Tabori and Darnell; four grandchildren, Ryleigh and Delantae Galloway, Myesha Brower and Dayanni Washington and one great-granddaughter Taylin Galloway; seven siblings Inez (Louis Elliott), Elaine, Royalene, Ronald, Johnice Miller (Thandor), Larry (Nakita), Lenny (Deana) Galloway; brother-in-law Eugene Hayes; her god-daughter Najla; her special niece Mrs. Alexis Galloway-Pollard and a numerous host of other nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.
