

Mrs. Mildred Mae Frederick

July 10, 1929 - February 4, 2021

Mildred Mae Hall Frederick was a giving mother, grandmother, sister, and friend to many. She peacefully transitioned to her eternal rest on Thursday, February 4, 2021 at the age of 91.

Mildred entered this world on July 10, 1929 in Youngstown, Ohio to the late Frank Hall, Sr. and Sallie Davis Hall and was the second eldest of eight children. She graduated from North High School in Youngstown and went on to pursue higher education, earning a Bachelors' Degree at Johnson C. Smith University, Charlotte, NC in 1951. While there, she was initiated into Gamma Delta Chapter of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Incorporated in 1948. In 2009 she became a Charter Member of Psi Lambda Omega Chapter in Brooklyn where she later became a Golden Member, Life Member, and Pearl Member of the sorority. She was an active member in her chapter and will be greatly missed by her sorority sisters.

Mildred settled in Brooklyn, New York where she met her husband Alvin A. Frederick, a native of St. Vincent, West Indies. Together they had three children and were married 49 years at the time of Alvin's untimely death in 2002. She had a full career as a New York State pre-school teacher and really loved educating children at that impressionable age. Mildred enjoyed travelling, the theater, and most especially dancing. While always on the go, she never met a stranger.

Mildred resided in Brooklyn until she relocated to Maryland to live with her daughter in 2018. She was an active member of John Wesley United Methodist Church, faithfully serving in various capacities for many years. She was under watch care at Oakland Baptist Church, Alexandria, VA. Mildred is preceded in death by sisters Elenora J. Murray, Anne D. Robinson, Ruby L. Hill, and brother Frank M. Hall, Jr. She leaves to cherish her memories: daughters Denise G. Frederick (Lexington, KY), Cynthia F. Whittenburg (and Steven of Upper Marlboro, MD); son Carlton D. Frederick (Youngstown); grandchildren Amanda H. Whittenburg and Khalif Frederick; special niece Phyllis J. Cross; sisters Eugenia H. Tillman and Olivia B. Taylor (N. Las Vegas, NV) and Luvenia M. Sanders (Youngstown); and host of nieces, nephews, and dear friends.

“ I called her Mrs. Fredricks, plural, she never complained about me saying her name wrong.

Several friends' mothers on the block of East 91st Street, Brooklyn, NY, you could run to (if you needed) as if they were your own mother. Mrs. Frederick was one of them.

Her and I exchanged Christmas cards every year, no matter where I lived, sort of like a teacher taking attendance.

She will be sorely missed by myself, Dave Webb, my younger brother Peter Webb, my older brother Howard Webb and my own mom, Mrs. Francella Webb (same age).

As God would have it, we all recently communicated on a social media GrandPad which the technically savvy Carlton, with his desire to always stay connected, set up. Thank you, my brother Carlton.

I'm at a loss for words, but my sincerest of condolences go out to brother Carlton, Cynthia and Denise as well as family and friends.

Mrs. Frederick, job well done. Sleep in Peace.

In loving memory of my Aunt Mildred.. I will always watch u from afar, your style, ur grace full of class.. U showed what it is too, carry myself with value's and morals, and so much grace.. Which I hope? I will be the woman it takes to be loved and admired, as you are and will always be in my site.. Love U Always..❤️ Kiss all our love ones for me and see U on the other side, one old day..😘😘
