

Morgan Haywood Holloway

June 22, 1926 - November 13, 2017

Morgan Haywood Holloway, age 91 entered into eternal rest at the Woodbine Nursing & Rehabilitation Center in Alexandria, VA on Monday, November 13, 2017 after a long illness.

A longtime resident of Alexandria, VA, Haywood was born and raised in Reidsville, North Carolina. He was the son of the late Minnie Elizabeth and Robert Holloway and the brother of two sisters and three brothers.

After honorable service to his country in the US Army, he began a career that spanned more than 30 years with Atlantic Research Corporation. He holds the distinction of being one of the first licensed African American plumbers in Alexandria.

Haywood was an avid fisherman who had a passion for the sport and an appetite for his catch. He enjoyed the simple pleasures of life such as spending time with family and friends, and serving as a willing “playmate” to his children and then his grandchildren and great-grandchildren. He especially enjoyed spending time with his best friend and fishing buddy, the late Roy Blackwell. Haywood had a kind heart, a quick wit, and will be missed by all who knew and loved him.

He was preceded in death by his first wife, Frances Holloway, his soul-mate and mother of his children, Ella Mae Pendergrass, and a son, Dwayne M. Holloway.

He is survived by: children and stepchildren: Sherry Belland (James), Linda Pendergrass, Gracie Coleman (Walter), Denise Coston, Terence Pendergrass (Olivia Cunningham), Angela King (Steve Kasal); daughter-in-law: Mabel Nieves-Holloway; grandchildren: Vanessa Pendergrass, Matthew Belland, Nathaniel Coston, Jr., Phillip Moten, Elijah Kasal; great-grandchildren: Amber Pendergrass, Jasmine Pendergrass, and a host of step-grandchildren /great-grandchildren, nieces and nephews.
