

Ms. Nora Mae Clark

March 4, 1937 - August 17, 2018

After the Clouds, the Sunshine, After the Winter, the Spring
After the Shower, the Rainbow, For Life is a Changeable thing.
After the Night, the Morning, Bidding all darkness cease,
After life's cares and sorrows, The Comfort and Sweetness of Peace.

On Friday, August 17, 2018, Nora Mae Edmondson Clark departed this life peacefully at the Manor Care Assisted Living Facility in Alexandria, VA.

Nora, the third-born child of the late Phillip Edmondson and Rebecca Jones Edmondson was born March 4, 1937 in Halifax County Virginia; she received her early education in a small school house which is now an historical monument, and later attended Mary McLeod Bethune High School.

Affectionately known as "Nora Mae" was the most loving and caring soul, full of life, laughter, and love for her family and friends. Nora began her young life as a "child bride" marrying her hometown friend Charlie Clark at the tender age of 16.

Being a devoted wife and mother she made many sacrifices in their upbringing, in doing so, she later relocated to Alexandria, VA, to seek employment and provide a permanent home for her family which she would remain for the next 56 years. She went to work for Judge Crogan; his family was an affluent staple in the community at that time which she was a faithful employee and friend. She was also especially close to Melissa Crogan. Her soft heart and giving spirit touched everyone who came to know her. Often times she extended that kindness in the form of providing a home for extended family, friends and even a caregiver for the elderly. Someone with little gave well beyond her means to help someone else and would even give her last and the shirt off her back. She loved to cook, dance, a lover of flowers, plants, and the life of the party. Though her health began to decline over the past few years, she still remained a “trooper,” til the end. She is preceded in death by her father, mother, her sister Dorothy, two brothers, Phillip, Jr., and Robert, and grandsons, Kenyon, Marcell, and Pierre.

She leaves to cherish her memories: her daughters, Goldie Wilkins, Gloria Clark, and Markeete Scott; her son, Alfred Clark; daughter-in-law Christine Clark; six sisters; Alberta Clark, Delores Lipscomb, Odessa Pyles, Precilla Simon, Melva Edmondson, and Mary Wright; three brothers, Earl, Charles and John Edmondson; grandchildren; Synina, Dijuan, Frederick, Lamont, Ronald, Dahzia, Kenyon, Alan, Derek, Brandon, Beyonce, Charles, and Ashley, great-grandchildren; Yasmine, Synia Amir, LaNeah, Michael, Jr., Jaela, Ethan, Beonca, Dynasti, Dakari, Serenity, Pierre, Jr., Quanria, Jewel, Naimia, Angel, Savannah, Allen, Kiree, Hannaha, Akirah, and Umar Blake; one aunt, Virginia Edmondson; three sisters in-law; Ruby Edmondson, Carolyn Edmondson, and Lorraine Harris; three brothers in-law; Clarence Pyles, Ted Simon, and Bill Wright; Goddaughter, Marlene Poindexter -Majors; devoted and faithful friends, Jerry Spells and Tina Ellis; and lifelong childhood friend James Chappell and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends. Also, special thanks to Envoy and Manor Care Assisted Living, overseeing her final care. Lastly, her unborn great-great grandson, “baby Carew.”
