

Mr. Permus Nathaniel Hall Jr.

July 19, 1953 - May 29, 2026

Permus Nathaniel Hall Jr., 72, peacefully passed away on Friday, May 29, 2026.

He was born on July 19, 1953 in Virginia to the late Permus Hall Sr. and Jean Webster Hall.

Permus grew up in Arlington, Virginia; receiving his education in the Arlington County Public Schools. He later honorably served his country in the United States Army.

After his discharge from the military, Permus pursued a career as a Chef at the Sunrise Nursing Home in Alexandria, VA. He later married Johnnie Mae Huddleston and relocated to Indianapolis, Indiana. Early in 2020, however, he returned to his family in Virginia.

Beyond his professional life, Permus enjoyed watching football and his favorite team, the Pittsburgh Steelers. He also had a passion for the music created from 1960 through 1980.

Those who knew him will always remember him as a quiet, laid back person with a generous heart and possessing a deep love for family.

Permus is preceded in death by his parents, a sister; Corliss Hogan and a brother; Aaron Hall.

He is survived by his wife; Johnnie Mae Hall, nieces; Tranita Randolph-Stephens, Raeshawn Randolph and Carolina Evans, great nieces, great nephews other relatives and friends.