

Rozetta Boggan

July 22, 1953 - December 21, 2014

On Sunday December 21, 2014, Rozetta Boggan was peacefully called into eternal rest. Rozetta was born in Alexandria, VA on July 22, 1953 to the late Doris Steele Boggan and James Boggan.

Rozetta attended Alexandria City Public Schools as well as District of Columbia Public Schools. She was employed with Center Plate Events at the Washington Convention Center. Rozetta loved the Lord whom she credits for giving her the strength and courage to redirect her life. She also credits the Lord for putting her on the journey of self-love, forgiveness and righteousness.

Rozetta cherished her family and friends. She relished gatherings and celebrations that brought those she loved together. She was known for her outgoing personality and was no stranger on any dance floor she encountered. Her love for God and her classic dance moves resulted in her establishing the Ebenezer Kingdom Pearls Liturgical Dance Team.

Rozetta's sister Hatti Ann Boggan and brother George Mack Boggan preceded her in transition. Rozetta is survived by her two children Keisha Michelle Boggan and Carleak Mundy Boggan, two grandchildren Lonelle Anthony Bowens and Talik Mundy Barber, one great-granddaughter Jewveah Bowens, five sisters Lynette McFadden, Doris Rhea Boggan-Johnson, Dianna Taylor, Renai Bowlding, Terri Pittman, two brothers James Boggan and Jeffrey

Woolfolk. She also leaves 2 brothers-in-law, 2 sisters-in-law and a host of nieces, nephews and friends.

“ Keisha,
While our hearts are heavy since Sister Rozetta is absent from among us, we can rejoice in her Home going because Phillipians 1:21 reminds us "For to me to live is Christ, and to die is gain!"
She has transitioned to her new home and we shall see her again!
May you continue to be comforted by the Holy Spirit and I will continue to pray for you and your family!
Love and blessings,

---
