“ Sharon was a person who reached for excellence in everything-- in her work, her friendships, her volunteer work for the homeless, and her faith in God. I only knew Sharon for 7 years or so but she was the dearest friend and most trusted colleague I have ever had. She was as dedicated in her work as a Proposal Specialist as she was in her friendship. Sharon saw me through the death of my mother in 2021. I don't know how I would have gotten through it without her help and support. I miss her every day. She can never be replaced. I guess God needed her more.
