

Sharon Farnigalo

January 6, 1960 - January 17, 2022

Sharon Farnigalo was the sixth child born on January 6, 1960, to the late Charles “Mandy” Nathaniel Sr. and Thelma Taylor. Sometime during the first few days of January 2022, Sharon unexpectedly departed this life, entered Heaven’s gates, and gained her wings along with her long-time companion Mr. William Roseboro.

Sharon and William were soulmates. William was a loving, caring, and devoted companion to Sharon. They remained together for 30 years until their departure together. It’s very unfortunate that Sharon and William transitioned at the same time, but this shows us that the pair had a very close bond that influenced the course of their lives.

Sharon received her formal education from the DC Public Schools Systems. She was extremely skillful and worked various jobs throughout her life. Sharon was a physical therapist, a floral designer, and she was also a home health aide.

At a young age, Sharon took comfort in reading the Bible. She loved the Lord and would always pray for others. Sharon liked to spend time alone and stayed to herself. She enjoyed learning new words to improve her vocabulary and would spend hours going through the dictionary. Sharon had a passionate love for painting. She was truly gifted with bringing a blank canvas to life.

Sharon also had a genuine love for flowers. She would make some of the most beautifully crafted centerpieces and flower arrangements. Living in her community for almost 20 years, Sharon was loved by her neighbors. She had a caring heart and did not mind helping anyone that needed a helping hand. Sharon found joy in cooking as well. She liked to cook for her family and neighbors. Sharon will be deeply missed by all that knew and loved her!

To cherish her memory, Sharon leaves behind her sister, Beverly Lewis (Larry Lewis, Sr.), sister -in-law; Claudette Taylor; four Nephews; Larry Lewis, Jr., Angelo Taylor, Joseph Taylor Jr., Ronald and Tony Jeter; four nieces; Nicole Henderson, Nakeisha Lewis, Ciara Taylor, Samantha Lewis, Erica Taylor and a host of cousins, other relatives and friends.

Sharon is preceded in death by her loving Husband: John Farngalo; Soulmate: Mr. William Roseboro; Parents: Charles N. Sr. and Thelma Taylor; Brother: Ronald Taylor, Sister: Gwendolyn Taylor; Brother: Charles "Brinky" Taylor, Jr., Brother: Joseph "Scooby" Taylor, Sr.; and Sister: Diana Tyson "Dee".
