

Stacy McDonald

March 3, 1965 - December 13, 2024

Stacy Shawn McDonald, 59, of Alexandria, VA, passed away suddenly on December 13, 2024. He was born on March 3, 1965, in Alexandria, VA, to Johnny and Odella McDonald. Stacy was raised in Alexandria and educated in the Alexandria public school system, where he graduated from T.C. Williams High School. A lifelong sports enthusiast, Stacy was an avid fan of football, especially the Dallas Cowboys. His love for the game was evident as he shared his passion with family and friends. Stacy also had a great appreciation for nature, and he found joy in fishing and tending to his garden, often sharing the fruits of his labor with his loved ones. In addition to his love for the outdoors, Stacy had a passion for barbecuing. He loved hosting family cookouts, especially at the beach, where he would invite everyone for fun, food, and fellowship. Whether it was his famous ribs or grilled chicken, Stacy's cookouts became a cherished tradition. We could always count on him to bring the joy and make every gathering special. Stacy worked at Wright Traffic, where he was known for his dedication and work ethic. He built strong relationships with his colleagues, and his professionalism and caring nature were always evident in his work. Stacy is survived by the love of his life, Tanya Bell. He is also survived by his father, Johnny McDonald; his mother, Odella McDonald; his sister, Vanessa Weddington; his brothers, Vincent McDonald (Katherine) and John McDonald (Monica); as well as a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends. Stacy was also preceded in death by his sister Margiretti McDonald. Although Stacy had no children of his own, his family and friends were the center of his world, and he will be deeply missed by all who knew him. Stacy was known for his consistent care and thoughtfulness. He took great pride in checking on his family and friends, often visiting them in person with a smile and a helping hand. His generosity and loving spirit will be remembered by all who were blessed to know him.
