

Torrence T. Stalling

January 14, 1973 - June 29, 2022

Torrence Stalling peacefully transitioned this life on Wednesday, June 29, 2022, surrounded by his loved ones. He was born on January 14, 1973 in Fort Wayne, Indiana to the Late Floyd Lee Curry and Shirley Ann Stallings. Torrence had a love of God at an early age, you could often find him on Sunday mornings, alongside his grandfather Rev. Stallings in the pulpit. At the age of 8, Torrence and his mother Shirley, relocated to Alexandria, VA, which became their home. During his younger years, Torrence would often visit his hometown of Fort Wayne, over the summertime to spend time with his aunts, uncles and cousins. Growing up in Alexandria, he attended Fairfax County public schools and participated in many community football leagues as well as attending Mt Vernon High School, where he was awarded many trophies for his football skills at both the community and high school levels. He was well known in the Mount Vernon, VA Community.

Torrence met and married the love of his life, Aisha Alexander on September 4, 1993. Crazy in love. They shared and created 35 years of love and memories. Their home was often the place to be, as they hosted many family dinners, holidays and just because family gatherings. All the kids wanted to go with Uncle Tee, as they referred to him.

Torrence was a carpenter by trade; however, his passion was people. His heart was huge, and he knew his purpose in life was to do God's work by serving his people. He always offered you a hot meal, when you visited his home! You could often find him, moving his neighbor's furniture, feeding the neighborhood kids, babysitting, fixing someone's car or giving you a ride. If you needed a place to stay or a hot meal the door was always open. He also had a love for cooking and firing up the grill. Torrence was often known to give out life lessons to many of the younger men and they all referred to him as "Pops" and they knew that he was a safe place.

Torrence accepted Christ in his life and became a member of Hope Baptist Church, in Alexandria, VA. Under the leadership of his Pastor, Arlette Johnson, he was baptized and served as a faithful and dedicated Usher. He found JOY in getting to church early each Sunday to make sure there were programs for each attendee and that the children had their snacks to keep them occupied during morning worship service.

He leaves his memory to live on in so many. His mother, Shirley Triplett, Woodbridge VA. His wife, Aisha Alexander-Stalling, Temple Hills MD. His brother Floyd Lee Causey (Amber Chandlier-Causey), Fort Wayne, IN. Three children; Fatima Alexander, Alexandria, VA, Trymane Alexander, Temple Hills MD and KeJaun Alexander, Temple Hills MD. One granddaughter Amiyah (Fatima). Many Aunts and Uncles. Sisters and Brothers in Love, a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends. His best friend Sabastian. His presence will be forever missed. His unforgettable impact on our lives and the special memories we have all shared will forever live on.

My condolences to Aisha and family in the loss of Torrence. Rest in the comfort that only God can provide during these difficult times. Shirley Triplett, only a mother who has lost a child really knows where you are right now. Your head knows he's in a better place but your heart wants what it wants. Continue to lean on God for your strength and know that you have friends and family you can call on when you need to. May God continue to strengthen you all as He has promised to do 🙏🙏🙏
