

Tyesha Wanzer

January 1, 1982 - June 25, 2016

Tyesha Monique Wanzer was born on January 1, 1982 at Arlington Hospital. She grew up in Alexandria, Va, and attended Fairfax county public schools for most of her education. Growing up, Tyesha was a happy child. She was so smart, and energetic. She always had a lot to say, even when she wasn't supposed to be talking.

Tyesha loved her family. She was super loyal and always made it to as many events as she could. Everyone would always joke about how she was the self-proclaimed favorite of her Grandma. She and the rest of the cousins would argue about it at every family gathering. She called her Grandma every single day, whether she was right around the corner in Maryland or all the way in North Carolina.

In 1997 on August 11, Tyesha gave birth to her first child, Tierra Haynes. Unfortunately, Tierra passed away four days later, on August 14. On December 31, 1998, she gave birth to her second child De'Sean Williams. On October 21, 2003, Tyesha gave birth to her third child, Tamia Wanzer. Tamia was with us on earth for only eight short years before she went to be with Jesus on September 21, 2011. Tyesha married Joseph Stapleton on May 6, 2010, and gave birth to her fourth child, JaKai Stapleton on August 24, 2010. She was a great mother to her children. She always went the extra mile to ensure that they were happy, and healthy.

In July of 2015, Tyesha, her husband, and her two children decided to move to Charlotte, North Carolina so that they could pursue better career opportunities. Shortly after moving there and securing employment, Tyesha joined Greater Salem church under the leadership of Bishop Allen Porter. She and her youngest son JaKai would travel in the church van to service often, and really enjoyed receiving the word. Often when Tyesha wasn't feeling up to it, JaKai would encourage her to go anyway.

On June 25, Tyesha gained her heavenly wings. She leaves to cherish her memory, her husband Joseph Stapleton, her two sons, De'Sean and JaKai, her mother, Cheryl Wanzer, her sisters Teyauni Wanzer and Candace Diggs, her Grandmother Beverly Wanzer, aunts Cathy Griffin(Ernest), Gloria Harris, Barbara Harris, and Pam Harris, uncles Tony Wanzer (Katischa), Charles Wanzer, Ricardo Wanzer(Yvonne), Eric Wanzer(Tanya), James Harris, and a host of cousins, relatives, and friends.
