

Vallarie Lee Jarrett

June 3, 1955 - December 27, 2024

Vallarie Lee Jarrett born on June 3, 1955, to Van Jarrett Jr. and Jessie M. Bolar (Jarrett) departed this life on December 27, 2024. She was the third born of eight children. Vallarie attended public schools in Alexandria, Virginia, graduating from T.C. Williams (Alexandria) High School in 1975. She held several positions including one with the Federal Government: finally ending her career with Safeway in Annandale Virginia.

Vallarie was a loving person; always smiling with a pleasant personality. She leaves behind a sister, Melvina M. Jarrett and a brother, Van Jarrett III, nieces, nephews, great nieces, great nephews and a host of cousins. We will miss her, but she is at peace now, so go on and take your rest your journey is over my sister.

“ We saw Vallerie almost every day (often multiple times a day) on our walks with our puppies. She was our puppy, Roscoe's, favorite person in the neighborhood. We had so many lovely chats with Vallerie, and she gave us a big smile every time she saw us walking up. She will be missed dearly.

“ I remember Valarie, Melvina, Van and their Cousin Denise Brooks. They are of the upmost most hospitable and friendly family you would encounter. The last time I seen Van was in front of Santullo's Grocery Store on Duke Street Alex VA. He had just retired from the army. Van, Melvina know that God loves you and that Valarie will be remembered in good thoughts.
